

ANNE LELONG

French photographer and painter born in 1971 in France. A Graduate in Fine Arts and Cartography, Anne established her base in Nepal in 2001. She has found in both photography and painting suitable mediums to capture the Tibeto-Nepalese customs and traditions particularly those of nomadic groups. She started sketching nomadic women wearing their traditional dresses and stone-jewelry during her numerous trips to remote areas near the Tibetan border. She has participated in many group exhibitions and presented solo exhibitions in Nepal and France.
